

„Strong women for a strong Europe“

European road map – Agenda 2030

Palermo, 21st July 2017

University of Palermo

Palazzo Steri, Room “Capriate”

First session: 10.00 – 11.45

Women’s involvement in the labour market

“Women’s economic empowerment as benefit for economy, work and society.” The aim of this panel is to discuss about female employment as an important economic factor. Accordingly, one should take into account several aspects: the work-life balance, child-care, the gender pay gap (especially for work of equal value), part-time work and labour market’s demands for digitalization.

Discussants: On. Vice Ministra Teresa Bellanova, Dimitrios Tsoutsias, European Institute for Gender Equality stellt die Studie „Economic Benefits of Gender Equality in the EU: EU and EU Member States overviews“ On. Sottosegretaria Elke Ferner, On. Sottosegretaria Franca Biondelli, On. Gisela Wurm, Dott.ssa Gabriele Rothenfluh, Dott.ssa Rosa Gentile, Prof. Giocchino Lavanco

Moderation: Dott.ssa Maria Pia Mannino, Vice Presidente Comitato Nazionale di Parità presso Ministero del Lavoro

Discussion

Second session: 11.45 -14.00

Industrie 4.0 Challenge and Opportunities

Best practice in Italy, Austria, Switzerland, Germany

Discussion and conclusions