Gender mainstreaming definition

- Gender mainstreaming is a strategy towards realising gender equality through the integration of a gender perspective into policy-making.
- A gender responsive policy ensures that the needs of all citizens, women and men, are equally addressed.

About

The Belgian constitution has explicitly affirmed the principle of equality between women and men since 2002, thanks to an amendment to Article 10. However, Belgium has a long experience in gender mainstreaming, mainly inspired by the Fourth World Conference on Women, held in Beijing in 1995.
